TENNESSEE AT THE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP

YOUNG-A YANG

TAE-GU CITY, SOUTH KOREA | (AT UT: 1998-2000)

Yang, a native of Tae-Gu City, South Korea, set the first Vol program record for best individual 72-hole NCAA Championship finish after carding a 75-73-71-69=288 total to complete the 2001 NCAA Tournament in fifth place overall at even par. She became the first UT women's golfer to earn first-team All-America honors from the National Golf Coaches Association (NGCA).

JESSICA SHEPLEY

OAKVILLE, ONTARIO, CANADA | (AT UT: 2001-05)

As a junior, Shepley became the second Vol to earn a top-five finish at the NCAA Championships with a 73-73-71-70=286 total at the 2004 tournament in Opelika, Ala. The Oakville, Ontario, product's two-under-par score put her in fifth and helped lead the team to 11th place. Shepley graduated from UT with All-SEC honors in three of her four years and was an honorable-mention NGCA All-American in 2004.

ERICA POPSON

DAVENPORT, FLA. | (AT UT: 2009-13)

Popson wrapped up her stellar career at UT holding numerous Vol records, including lowest career average (73.40) and low single season average (72.19), which she averaged during her sophomore season. She boasts 18 top-10 finishes in 42 tournaments. She won or tied for first on eight occasions and earned All-SEC honors three of her four years at UT, as well as being a two-time All-America honoree.

ANNA NEWELL

TAMPA, FLA. | (AT UT: 2014-18)

Newell earned WGCA First Team All-America and Golfweek Second Team All-America accolades in 2016. The Tampa, Fla. native set two NCAA records (54-hole record for total strokes and relation to par) and had a program-best fourth place finish at the NCAA Women's Golf Championship in 2016. Newell was also named to the All-SEC First Team. She led the Vols with a 72.36 average over 36 rounds as a sophomore. Additionally, she carded top-25 finishes (six top-10) in all 12 tournaments of the 2015-16 season.

MICHEALA WILLIAMS

ATHENS, ALA. | (AT UT: 2016-21)

Williams became the fifth player in Tennessee program history to qualify as an individual at the NCAA Championships. The sophomore led the team in stroke average in 2017-18 with a mark of 74.27. Williams finished the week tied for 27th with a four-round score of 293 (+5) which was the third-highest finish for a Lady Vol as an individual at the NCAA Championships. She was as high as tied for 17th after three rounds of the competition, helping her earn a spot in the final round of the Medal Championship.

MIKAYLA BARDWELL

LEWISVILLE, TEXAS | (AT UT: 2018-PRESENT)

Bardwell's trip to the NCAA Championship came on the heels of her recording the third-best round three score (66) in program history at the NCAA Louisville Regional. As the sixth player in Tennessee program history to qualify as an individual, Bardwell logged a three-day score of 230 (+14) to finish tied for 97th after 54 holes at Grayhawk Golf Club in Scottsdale, Arizona. As a junior in 2020-21, Bardwell led the Lady Vols with a stroke average of 73.91, posted four top-10 performances and shot in the 60s on four occasions.
